On Saturday 20 February 2010, 'The Weekend Australian' announced Adelaide's own Majestic Roof Garden Hotel as WINNER of the Best Value Accommodation category their annual Travel & Tourism Awards.

The awards were created to give recognition to Australian tourism operators and providers who have consistently achieved a standard of excellence over the past year. Consisting of 17 categories, all nominees were compiled by the award-winning editor of Travel & Indulgence, Susan Kurosawa with the assistance from a selection panel of experts.

Exert from The Australian Travel & Tourism Awards 2009

Best Value Accommodation: Majestic Roof Garden Hotel, Adelaide, SA. In the city's vibrant East End, this small service-oriented hotel ticks all the boxes for corporate and leisure travellers.

"What a year" says Majestic Hotels Sales & Marketing Manager, Nicole Cain. "In May 09 the Hotel was named Best Value Hotel in Australia and Number 24 in the World via Expedia.com. Voted by our valued guests this was a huge honour."

"These awards can only be achieved with the passion and dedication of such a wonderful team. To now be awarded a second 'consumer' award in the space of 12 months is just fabulous" says Nicole.

South Australia topped the list of winners with awards across four categories. Fantastic for South Australia - which missed out on any awards in 2008

In November 2009, the Majestic Roof Garden Hotel was also awarded Best Deluxe Accommodation at the South Australian Tourism Awards and will go on to compete against a strong list of national winners at the National 2009 Qantas Australian Tourism Awards, held in Tasmania on Friday 26th February, 2010.
