

The Majestic Minima Hotel has compact accommodation complete with king-size beds, 32-inch LCD televisions and more.

IN SOUTH AUSTRALIA

Kangaroo luxury

Big Blue Air Touring's new three, four or five-day tours feature a private light aircraft flight to the luxurious newly opened eco-wilderness property, Southern Ocean Lodge located on Kangaroo Island. Activities include a personalised private tour of the island featuring koalas, kangaroos, wallabies, fur seals, sea lions, penguins and dolphins. A low level scenic flight in a private biplane over the McLaren Vale vineyards precedes arrival at chic Portee Station

Homestead, a 9300ha fine wool sheep station set in landscaped gardens with four kilometres of private Murray River frontage.

Enjoy a sunset champagne, wombat and kangaroo tour, gourmet barbecue and outdoor concert by award-winning singer/songwriter John O'Dea.

Finish off the tour with a hot air balloon flight over the Barossa at sunrise, before returning to Adelaide. Visit bigblueairtouring.com for more details.

Boutique beauty

The Majestic Minima Hotel is a sleek boutique hotel located in the heart of cosmopolitan North Adelaide – setting new trends in stylish, yet inexpensive city fringe accommodation. Centrally located on North Adelaide's cosmopolitan Melbourne Street, you'll be spoilt for choice when it comes to shopping and dining. Featuring compact accommodation complete with king-size beds, 32-inch LCD televisions and broadband Internet access. The property also features Adelaide's first 24-hour, self check-in facility for guest convenience.

Visit majestichotels.com.au for more details.

Whale of a time

The redeveloped South Australian Whale Centre has now opened. New displays will portray both the historical and current relationship of whales with Victor Harbor, and feature interactive exhibits displaying other creatures of the deep including